MARRIAGES IN MANHATTAN SHOW RAPID DECREASE AS DRAFT REGULATIONS TIGHTEN

Supplemental List Gives Names of Applicants Within Conscription Age for Licenses During the Past Two Days -- Only One-Fifth as Many on Friday as on Monday.

The Evening World presents today a second list of marriage licenses issued in the borough of Manhattan to men within the conscription age. Yesterday's publication included the licenses of the first three days of the week. Today's list contains the licenses issued on Thursday and Friday.

It is noticeable that there is steady daily reduction in numbers, ranging from 383 on Monday down to 131 on Thursday and only 78 on Friday. The high record of the year was April 8, three days after a state of war was declared, when 483 licenses were issued in Manhattan.

District draft boards have received definite instructions from the Provost Marshal General regarding claims for exemption based solely on matrimony. The mere fact of marriage will not be sufficient to secure exemption from military service, particularly if the alliance was contracted for that purpose.
